No Excuse.

That Kentucky is so far down on the list of literacy is due in many respects to the laxity of the parents. Evidence of this is shown by the recent announcement of Superintendent of Public Instruction Ellsworth Reineken that the per capita for the coming school year will be $4.00 as heretofore. That is, the State of Kentucky will devote $4.00 to the education of every child between the ages of six and twenty-one years old. This is a more liberal response to education than made by many other states, but the local tax on the other hand is much less. The discrepancy from this is said to be one of the reasons of illiteracy among the whites. Since the State furnishes this amount every parent should see that their children obtain the advantages therefrom.—Ex.

A Reliable Medicine.

Not A Narcotic.
Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says Foley's Honey and Tar saved her little boy's life. She writes: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchitis and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells, and he got well in short time. Foley's Honey and Tar has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house." Haydon & Robertson.

General Harrod.

Mrs. W. J. Worrell, of Bloomington, Ohio, and her two sisters, Mrs. Mary Baugh and Mrs. Lilla Thornton, of Washington Court House, Ohio, were here Friday endeavoring to locate the grave of their great-grandfather, General James Harrod, who settled this place and for which Harrodsburg was named. They visited the old cemetery and searched among the head-stones for one bearing his name, but could find no trace of where his remains were interred. A gentleman here said to the Republican that General Harrod left the fort one morning and was never seen afterward and it was supposed that he had either been killed by the Indians or had fallen a victim to some wild beast, consequently it has been impossible to learn anything definite regarding his death and burial.—Harrodsburg Republican.

A Man of Iron Nerve

Admirable will and tremendous energy are never found without Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills, the matchless regulators for Keen Brain and strong body. At Haydon & Robertson.

Autos Collide.

A serious accident was narrowly averted Thursday afternoon when Mr. J. G. Mankin and Mr. Gray Handley, of Danville, driving their cars, headed into each other on the long hill beyond Brooklyn bridge. Mr. Mankin was coming down the hill towards Harrodsburg and had reached a sharp turn in the road where the cliff cuts off the view ahead, and Mr. Handley was going up the hill to Lexington and neither was aware of the proximity of the other until only a few feet separated them. Both applied the emergency brake but the cars collided, rearing in the air, amid the sound of breaking lamps and screams of the feminine passengers, all of whom escaped unhurt. After working for some time they continued on their way. Mr. Mankin's car badly bruised and the lamps broken, and Mr. Handley's machine in such a condition that it was necessary for him to leave it in a Lexington garage and return home on the train.—Harrodsburg Herald.

Mrs. Jacob Wilmet, Lincoln, Ill., found her way back to perfect health. She writes: "I suffered with kidney trouble and backache and my appetite was very poor at times. A few weeks ago I got Foley's Kidney Pills and gave them a fair trial. They gave me great relief, so continued till now I am again in perfect health." Haydon & Robertson.

Pension Vouchers.

Pensioners who live in the country as well as rural mail carriers will be interested in the new order just sent in by the Postmaster General. The order authorizes the rural mail carrier to administer oaths required of the pensioners and their witnesses. This eliminates their coming to town to make out their vouchers. The fee of the rural carrier cannot be over twenty-five cents, and although this sum is small there are some carriers who have a large number of pensioners on their route and it will mean quite a little sum in the course of a year. Many an old soldier will be pleased to hear this news, for it will save him many a long drive to town. Now he can deal with his mail-carrier at his own gate.—Ex.

The Lash of a Fiend

would have been about as welcome to A. Cooper, of Oswego, N. Y., as a merciless lung racking cough that defied all remedies for years. "It was most troublesome at night," he writes, "nothing helped me until I used Dr. King's New Discovery which cured me completely. I never coughed at night now." Millions know its matchless merit for stubborn colds and obstinate coughs, sore lungs, laryngitis, asthma, hemorrhage, croup, whooping cough or hay fever. It relieves quickly and never fails to satisfy. A trial convinces. See $1.00 bottle free. It's positively guaranteed by Haydon & Robertson.

St. Thomas' Orphanage Removed To Louisville.

Early on the morning of Thursday, September 1st, the children of St. Thomas' Orphanage at Bardonia were transferred to their new home at Preston Park, Louisville. This removal of these helpless ones from our midst is a source of genuine regret to our citizens. Their coming to us years ago from old St. Thomas' Asylum was gladly welcomed, and their residing here has brought many blessings to St. Joseph's congregation and to the community at large. As a final evidence of their kindly feeling, the citizens of all denominations contributed a sum sufficient to furnish a substantial feast which was served to the little orphans at noon of the day preceding their departure from our midst, also sufficient for supper in the evening and a luncheon for the next day. The Knights of Columbus, this city, provided for the music of the occasion, which was well rendered by Bardonia's Brass Band. This latter feature was a source of great delight to the little ones. As the children with bright smiling faces, walked in procession to the station, quietly orderly, like well disciplined soldiers, their neat cleanly appearance was the subject of much admiring comment from the large number of citizens who had gathered to say a final word of farewell and of God speed to the children and sisters God bless them and aid them always is the prayer of their Bardonia friends.—Bardonia Standard.

Don't Break Down

Severe strains on the vital organs like strains on machinery cause breakdowns. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters, the matchless tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes: "I did not break down, while enduring a most severe strain, for three months, in due wholly to Electric Bitters." Use them for any health and strength. See effect positively guaranteed. 50c at Haydon & Robertson.

Roosevelt's Platform.

The former President declared himself in favor of these principles:
1—Elimination of special interests from politics.
2—Complete the effective publicity of corporation affairs.
3—Passage of laws prohibiting the use of corporate funds directly or indirectly for political purposes.
4—Government supervision of the capitalization not only of public service corporations, but of all corporations doing an interstate business.
5—Personal responsibility of officers and directors of corporations that break the law.

6—Increase in the power of the Federal Bureau of Corporations and the Interstate Commerce Commission to control corporations and industry more effectively.

7—Revision of tariff, one schedule at a time, on the basis of information furnished by an expert tariff commission.

8—Graduated income tax and graduated inheritance tax.

9—Readjustment of the country's financial system in such a way as to prevent repetition of periodical financial panics.

10—Maintenance of an efficient army and navy large enough to insure for the nation the respect of other nations as a guarantee of peace.

11—The use of national resources for the benefit of all the people.

12—Extension of the work of the departments of agriculture of the national and State governments and of agricultural colleges and experiment stations so as to take in all phases of life on the farm.

13—Regulation of the terms and conditions of labor by means of comprehensive acts, State and national laws to regulate child labor and the work of women, enforcement of better sanitation conditions for workers and extension of the use of safe appliances on industry, and commerce, both in and between the States.

14—Clear division of authority between the national and the various State governments.

15—Direct primaries associated with corrupt practices and acts.

16—Prohibition of campaign contributions, not only after election but before election, as well.

17—Prompt removal of unfaithful and incompetent public servants.

18—Provisions against the performance of any service for interstate corporation or national officers.

EXECUTOR'S SALE

As executor of the will of T. M. Latham, I will on Saturday, Sept. 17,

about the hour of 1:30 p.m., on the premises, sell at public auction the farm containing about owned by the late T. M. Latham. The farm is situated about one and one-half miles West of Springfield on the Smith Mill turnpike. The farm is in a high state of cultivation and has on it an excellent frame dwelling containing 7 rooms and all other necessary out-buildings. This is one of the best watered farms in Washington county and contains an excellent orchard of apples and small fruits.

The sale will be on a credit of one-fourth cash, the remainder in one, two, three and four years. The bonds for the deferred payments to bear interest from date and payable annually and to contain a clause that in default of any installment of interest or any note all of the notes to become due and payable at the option of the owner. Any information that any purchaser may desire or wishes to see the place call on H. A. Rupp or W. A. Clements.

Hettie Rupp.

Executor of T. M. Latham.

Feet and Hands De-

voured By Animals.

Danville, Ky., Sept. 9.—Lying in a secluded spot on the banks of Dix river, the body of an unidentified man was found today by workmen engaged in the construction of the new dam for the Danville waterworks.

The feet and hands of the man had been eaten off by wild animals. The Coroner summoned a jury and the inquest will be held this afternoon.

Gets $2,000 for Injuries.

William Chapman, adjuster for the Big Four Railroad, was here Monday and paid William Litsky $2,000 for injuries received in the railroad wreck near Dayton, Ohio, on July 4. Besides giving him $2,000 the company will pay the physician and hospital bills of the young man. Mr. Litsky is under 21 years of age and for that reason Col. George Bohon qualified as his guardian in County Court Monday and the money was paid to him. In the wreck in which the young man was injured twenty-two people were killed outright and over a score injured, three of the latter dying later. Two men on the seat in front of Litsky were instantly killed. The collision with the coal railroad company over $125,000.—Harrodsburg Herald.

When Merit Wins

When the medicine you take cures your disease, tones up your system and makes you feel better, stronger and more vigorous than before, that is what Merit Kidney Pills do for you in all cases of backache, sleeplessness and general weakness that is caused by any disorder of the kidneys or bladder. Haydon & Robertson.

New Road Law

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

1 That it shall be unlawful for any one to obstruct the water tables of a turnpike or any public road by putting a cross-log, either private or public, over the water table of a public road without providing a culvert or pipe of sufficient dimension to carry the full volume of water that may drain in this water table or to curb it so as not to impede the full flow of water. It shall also be unlawful to plant trees, telephone poles or fence in or closer than two and one-half feet of the outer edge of the ditch, so that a pile or machinery may be used in making, widening or deepening them. Any fence, tree or stone falling into a water table or rolling down from above into it, shall be removed within five days by the owner of land of which the obstruction was a part or any person not an owner trimming trees or cutting weeds or briars, or

H. Christie, of Lebanon, at $210.
Other stock brought fair prices.

Good Attendance.
School opened Monday, as was announced in our last week's issue. The attendance was very large for the first week and both teachers and pupils have entered upon their work with renewed zeal after their much needed rest.

McChord-Williams.
The marriage of Miss Annie McChord to Rev. W. H. Williams will take place at the Presbyterian church on next Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, Rev.
R. E. C. Lawson officiating.

Colored Fair.
The Washington County Colored Fair opens today. A good attendance is expected as quite a number of good premiums have been offered, and some good stock is expected to be on exhibition. The directors and officials have taken great interest in the matter and their efforts are expected to be rewarded by a successful fair.

New Bank Meeting.
A meeting of the stockholders
of the Springfield State Bank was held at the Court House on last Saturday afternoon. The majority of the stockholders were present and the question of electing directors was voted upon. The Gholson.

Mrs. F. F. Gholson died on last Saturday morning at the home of her brother, Mr. C. R. Mc-Whorter, in this city, from a hernia from which she had been a sufferer periodically for 20 years. She arrived here on Tuesday preceding her death and was in as good health as usual until a short time before her death. She was fifty-five years of age and leaves a husband and eight children. The remains were taken to her home at Paducah and funeral services were conducted from the Christian church, of which she was a member.

For Sale.

A fine farm at Pine Grove
near Beechland, Washington County, Ky., containing 161 acres.
All good tobacco land. As good nine-room residence as can be found in the county, 2 tenant houses, 2 stock barns, 2 tobacco barns, a harness and carriage
room, good ice house, wood house, apple house, meat house and all other necessary outbuildings. A fine variety of fruits—apples, peaches, plums, grapes, raspberries and pears. This farm has plenty of fine timber, two good wells, a fine pond with plenty of fish in it. Farm is well watered.
This farm can be cut into three tracts, with a house, barn, water and timber on each tract, all fronting the pike. A good school house about fifty yards from dwelling. Will sell reasonably.
For further particulars call on

The Thomas Crown Mower

WITH CHANGEABLE SPEED

This Mower has more exclusive features than any mower on the market. These new features are not merely talking points, but are really meritorious. It has the Ball and Roller Bearing, Floating Cutting Bar, Improved Foot Lift and Raising Lever, a Double Speed Gear, and can be changed from a fast to a slow speed in a few seconds. It has heavy drive wheels, strong and simple frame, and light draft is guaranteed. Come in and see it.
